LAST HONORS TO BARRETT.

Father Thomas Sherman OMCelates at the Tragedian's Quiet Funeral.

Last honors were paid this morning to Lawrence Barrett. Rev. Father Thomas Sherman, son of Gen. Sherman, performed this saddest duty of the priestly office.

Though there was a host of friends, lovers and admirers of the dead actor in the lobby of the Windsor Hotel, below stairs, there were only a few of the nearest friends of Barrett admitted to the apartments on the third floor, where the tragedian died and where the services were held.

This was in accordance with the wishes of Mrs. Barrett, who was supported in this hour by her daughter and her son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Williams, of Boston.

The others present were Edwin Booth, Lawrence Hutton, the lifelong friend of both Mr. and Mrs. Barrett; Milton Nobles, George Fawcett and J. D. Frawley, representing Edwin Forrest Lodge, Order of Friendship; Trustees A. M. Palmer, Louis Aldrich, Edwin Knowles, Frank W. Hanger, Charles Shannon, Charles W. Thomas, Daniel Frohman, Tony Pastor, M. W. Hanley, Joseph Arthur, Edwin H. Price and F. F. Mackay, of the Actors' Fund of America; Miss Rachel Sherman, E. H. Rogers, Augustin Daly, Judge Joseph F. Daly and William Bingham.

A beautiful cross of roses and lilacs of the valley, ordered sent by Mrs. Navarro (Mary Anderson), lay on the casket.

The service at the Windsor Hotel were brief and simple, consisting only of the shorter Roman Catholic burial service, by Father Sherman.

The casket containing the body of the dead actor remained covered, and at the conclusion of the prayers it was taken to the Grand Central station, followed in carriages only by a few friends.

The body was placed in a funeral car attached to the 11 o'clock train on the New Haven road, en route to the City Point Cemetery, Mass. Besides Mrs. Barrett and her son and daughter, there were Lawrence Hutton, Edwin Forrest Lodge, Trustees A. M. Palmer, Louis Aldrich, Edwin Knowles, Frank W. Hanger, Charles Shannon, Charles W. Thomas, Daniel Frohman, Tony Pastor, M. W. Hanley, Joseph Arthur, Edwin H. Price and F. F. Mackay, of the Actors' Fund of America; Miss Rachel Sherman, E. H. Rogers, Augustin Daly, Judge Joseph F. Daly and William Bingham.

and deets. Among the things said was this by Col. Robert G. Ingersoll:
"Lawrence Barrett was my friend and I was his. He was an interpreter of Shakespeare to whose creations he gave flesh and blood. He was at the foundation of his profession, and rose until he stood next to his friend—next to one who is regarded as the greatest tragedian of our time—next to Edwin Booth."
"The life of Lawrence Barrett was a success, because he honored himself and added glory to the stage. He did not seek for gain by pandering to the thoughtless, ignorant or base. He saw the drama in its highest and most serious form. He studied the question, the vulgar and impure, and gave the in-

Intellectual, the pathetic, the manly, and the tragic.
"One by one the players leave the stage and others take their places. There is no pause. The play goes on. No prompter's voice is heard, and no one has the slightest clue as to what the next scene is to be."
"Will this drama have an end? Will the curtain fall at last? Will it rise again upon some other stage? Reason says perhaps, and hope still whispers yes."
"Sadly I bid my friend farewell. I admired the actor, and I love the man."
